Siddharth (Sidd) Shah

Head of Partner Success | Adtech

Long Beach, CA | hello@siddharthshah.me | siddharthshah.me | linkedin.com/in/iamsiddharthshah | github.com/bigsidd

I build products and the partnerships that make them pay.

Eighteen years across customer success, partnerships and product, the last decade in adtech. I work the whole partner lifecycle, from the technical sale through launch to keeping them live.

Experience

MomentScience | Head of Partner Success | May 2025 – Present
A 15-person adtech company that shows ads as perks on order confirmation and thank-you pages.

- Ran the technical side of 18 enterprise deals, 12 of which closed.
- Launched 10 enterprise partners in 18 months, including a Fortune 50 telecom from security review to production.
- 10 of the 12 partners I've owned are still live. Neither loss was over service.
- Built the launch playbook every partner now runs on: a security-answer bank, integration checklists and AI tooling.
- Directed the iOS and Android launch of WiWo, a location rewards app, and run MoMoney, a gaming offer platform.

Upward Ventures | Founder | Oct 2024 – Present

- Product consulting for early-stage teams, and part-time career coaching for a product-career program: positioning, resumes and job-search plans for senior PMs.

InMarket | Senior Product Manager | Sep 2020 – Oct 2024
A $100M+ location-based advertising and measurement company.

- Grew the mobile ads SDK, about 70% of company revenue, by $15M a year and lifted profit 24% by building real-time location data into it.
- Folded NinthDecimal's location and measurement products into InMarket six months ahead of plan, adding $8M in revenue and 40% more enterprise clients.
- Cut incident rates 25% and time to resolve 50% with real-time monitoring and troubleshooting dashboards.

NinthDecimal | Product Manager | Sep 2019 – Aug 2020 (acquired by InMarket)
Location data and measurement for advertisers.

- Held 95% of Kiip's clients through the integration by writing its playbook.
- Raised attribution margins to 60%. One of seven employees InMarket retained.

Kiip | Customer Success Manager, then Product Manager | Aug 2015 – Sep 2019 (acquired by NinthDecimal)
A mobile ad network that rewarded people for achievements inside apps.

- Built a JavaScript ad tag and a private ad marketplace: $5.2M+ in revenue.
- Owned the ads SDK and advertiser tools for 500+ brands, reaching 50M+ users. Managed one direct report.

Movoto | Customer Success Manager and Licensed Realtor | Mar 2014 – Jul 2015
An online real estate brokerage.

- Managed about 400 agent accounts, beat revenue targets 15% a year, and rebuilt onboarding to lift performance 35%.

IHG, Holiday Inn Fresno Downtown | General Manager | Jan 2011 – Feb 2014

- Ran a 197-room, $3.5M full-service hotel with 75 staff, and cut staff turnover 40%.

Dossier Group | Lead Consultant, Digital and Growth Strategy | Aug 2008 – Sep 2010
A brand and talent consultancy.

- Ran NBA All-Star campaigns that won a client the fan vote three years running.

Skills

- Partner success: onboarding and implementation, launch playbooks, retention, escalations, executive communication
- Technical: SDK and API integrations, JavaScript ad tags, security reviews, data analysis, AI agents and automation
- Adtech and product: mobile SDKs, rewards and offer networks, location data, measurement and attribution, roadmaps
- Project: os (github.com/bigsidd/os), my product judgment as rules AI agents run, each tested with and without the rule
